Lakewood Golf Tournament – Oct. 15, 2018

It got a little windy at the turn on the golf course, but our players persevered and had an enjoyable day. The “B” flight were the stars of the day, as they were the only ones to break par. George Sims brought in a net 68 to win the flight. Miguel Ortiz-Marroquin, the only other player to break par, was two back in second place with a net 70. Robert Prince came in third with a net 74, just ahead of several players who were one stroke back.

The “A” flight players had trouble dealing with the windy conditions and did not fare so well, as Michael Hernandez shot a net 76 to win. In second place at net 78 was newcomer Tony Bacon. Chuck Adams followed in third place with a net 80.

The “C” flight was a dog fight as Richard Duran won with a net 76. He outlasted Jim Meek, who was behind by one stroke at net 77, finishing second. This followed last month’s battle between Richard and Jim as they battled for third place. Frank Barajas, playing for the first time in many months, finished third with a net 83.

The Ladies flight was only represented by Marjorie Stevens-Kelly and she finished with a net 81. I can only hope and pray that we can get more women to participate at Whittier Narrows. Remember ladies, you are always welcome.

The next tournament is at Whittier Narrows Golf Course on Dec. 3, 2018. First tee at 8 a.m.
