

L.A. Regional Food Bank Thanks RELAC

The L.A. Regional Food Bank recently featured RELAC and its members in its “Hunger to Hope” newsletter, thanking RELAC members for providing more than 90,000 meals to address hunger experienced by needy families and the unemployed.

With the generous support of RELAC members, over $25,000 has been donated to provide much needed food during high unemployment, COVID-19 challenging times and for seniors struggling with food insecurity. Many seniors live in multi-generational households that are experiencing a loss in income and self-quarantines.

RELAC’s Team “WeFeedLA” was recognized as a top 2021 food drive champion.

Top donors included RELAC’s: Gold Donors ($4,000 - $3,000) Dave Muir, Evelyn Gutierrez and Helen Masuda. Silver Donors ($1,000 - $500) Evelyn Fullmore, Linda Hopkins and Dolores Hernandez. Bronze Donors ($499 - $200) Brian Berger, J.P. Harris, Joe Kelly, Sheryl Spiller, Manuel Alarcon, Gail Chancellor, Elaine McCain, Suzanne Farrell, Janice Nelson, Barbara Silver, Rehana Uraizee, Lucy Quinonez and Deborah Gibson.

RELAC’s L.A. Regional Food Bank team captain Linda Hopkins stated, “I am so grateful to have been blessed with all the necessities of life. I was initially drawn to RELAC because the organization is service driven. I am also appreciative that we have chosen to help others and support the L.A. Regional Food Bank, the March for Babies and the Fire Department’s toy drive.”

“Most of us are lucky to have retirement security and first class health care benefits. I can’t imagine what it’s like having to miss a meal, worse yet, worrying how I would feed my children,” said RELAC Director Dave Muir.

The RELAC Board of Directors invites RELAC members to participate in the 2022 Food Drive campaign by reaching out to family members, friends, neighbors and other organizations that may be interested in helping provide much needed food for families in underserved communities and fellow seniors. Sharing is caring.

The RELAC Board of Directors sincerely thanks you for your generosity and caring.
